

I do not want the FCC to banish the telephone protection law for Indiana. It has been great not to have telephone calls soliciting my household.